Mr. W. H. Johnson is papering the southwest room on first floor of Powhatan College, with a view of converting it into a handsome parlor for the young ladies of the College.

Mr. John H. Hall, a well-known resident of this place, died Saturday morning at his residence on Liberty street. He had been in failing health for several years, and his death was the result of a general decline. He was about 60 years of age and came to Jefferson county soon after the war from Elliptic City, Md. He resided on his farm about one mile east of this place until a few years ago, when he gave up farming on account of his health. He leaves a widow and several children. Funeral services were held at his late residence yesterday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. C. Hopkins. Interment in Edge Hill Cemetery.

"Reasonable amount of fleas is good for a dog—keeps him from bleeding" over being a dog, mebbe," says David Harum, etc. A little laughter is good for us all, and an evening of mirth is assured to all who attend the recital of Mr. and Mrs. Williams to be given in Washington Hall tonight. They will present first a one-act farce comedy, arranged by Mr. Williams, entitled "Mrs. Tabor's Prescription." This deals with the domestic vicissitudes of a couple of whom the husband prefers the club to home, but thinks his wife should have no interests outside of the home. He endeavors to bring her around to his view, and thereby gets himself into a predicament that completely alters his own ideas and results in a victory for the wife. This is full of action from start to finish, and abounds in laughable situations. "David Harum and the Widow Callow" will be the second and last feature of the entertainment. This will comprise scenes from Westcott's well-known book, and it will be necessary only to say that David will tell his best stories, and the Widow Callow will be happily relieved from the troubles which beset her. Good music will be furnished by a competent orchestra. Tickets on sale at G. T. Light's. All seats reserved. Prices 25 and 35 cents.

Price 25 cents. All Druggists.

"I have taken Ayer's Pills regularly for six months. They have cured me of a severe headache, and I can now walk from two to four miles without getting tired or out of breath. Something I have not been able to do for many years."

S. E. WALKER, Salem, Mass.

Personal Mention.

Miss Ella Wood has been quite sick.

Mr. Wm. Trappell left for Kansas City, Missouri.

Miss Agnes Phillips has returned to Washington City.

Miss Jessie Henkle is the guest of Miss Orna P. Tomlinson.

Col. W. W. Coo has been spending several days in town.

Miss Bessie Colston left Friday to visit friends at Buena Vista, Va.

Mrs. Fontaine B. Hoof has been visiting relatives in Richmond, Va.

Mrs. Mary Alexander has gone to Clarksburg to spend the winter.

Miss Lila Willis has been spending a few days with Miss Louise Baylor.

Mr. Wm. Hopkins is spending a few days at the parental home east of town.

Mr. Allison Hooff, of Manassas, Va., is visiting his mother and brothers here.

We were pleased to meet Mr. Eugene Shugart, of Harpers Ferry, in town yesterday.

Rev. K. S. Coupland left for Norfolk, Va., Saturday, to accompany his family back home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. B. Gallaher have been spending a few days with friends in Staunton, Va.

Mr. W. F. Walker visited Monongalia county last week, to look after bridge work in that locality.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie C. Beard and little son, of Hagerstown, Md., are the guests of C. N. Beard.

Mr. J. C. Wiltshire, who has been quite sick with a threatened attack of typhoid, is able to be out again.

Rev. E. R. Leyburn and Mrs. Sallie Harlan, of Berkeley county, have been visiting the Misses Keel.

Mrs. Chas. A. Johnson and daughter Mosele returned Thursday from an extended visit to friends in Roanoke and elsewhere.

Mr. W. W. Stough, the enterprising and genial Shippensburg (Pa.) carriage manufacturer, was in Charles Town last Wednesday.

Mr. G. T. Knight has been out to Clarksburg, and expects to return and locate in that now rapidly growing city. We wish him much success.

Dr. Wm. Long and young son, of Lake Providence, La., have been visiting friends in this place—the first visit of the Doctor here since leaving Charles Town fourteen years ago.

It is published in the papers that Rev. A. C. Hopkins has been extended a call by the Hampton (Virginia) Presbyterian Church, to succeed Rev. W. H. McLaughlin, who has tendered his resignation. This refers to Rev. A. C. Hopkins, of Bayard, son of Rev. Dr. A. C. Hopkins, of this town.

Mrs. Margaret Moreland, of Berryville, Va., visited her son, Mr. F. J. Moreland, in this place several days last week. Mrs. Moreland has been troubled of late with defective eye-sight, and came here to consult Dr. Bishop, who is now treating her.

Col. B. D. Gibson and Messrs. Chas. W. Brown, Milton Burr and D. W. Cledening attended the meetings of the Grand Chapter and Masonic Grand Lodge, at Parkersburg, last week. The Grand Lodge will meet in Huntington next year.

Miss Maduro, from Porto Rico, is expected at Powhatan College this week. It is a high compliment to this institution that the father of this young lady should have selected the Powhatan as a proper place to educate his daughter in preference to the leading female colleges of New York.

From the Bridgewater correspondent of the Harrisonburg Spirit of the Valley we take the following: "Miss Amelia Manning, the pretty and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Manning, of Charles Town, W. Va., is a guest of her uncle, Mr. C. J. Manning, since Thursday. She is on her return home from a three-month visit to her sister, Mrs. R. E. L. Prior, of Charleston."

Mr. and Mrs. George Baylor and Miss Louise Baylor entertained the Euche Club Friday evening. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. George Porterfield, Dr. and Mrs. William Neill, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Mason, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Cam bell, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Baylor, Col. and Mrs. R. P. Chew, Misses Christine W. Chew, Emily T. Chew, Margaret and Ethel Kennedy, Anna Mitchell, Mand Bower, Lila Willis, Rebecca M. Trappell and Julia Alexander, and Messrs. Arthur Davenport, A. S. Allen, Geo. B. Moore, Robert A. Kinsman, Thomas L. Moore, E. C. Worthington, E. E. Cooke, George T. Light, Robert Chew, John Porterfield and Charles L. Crane.

Several preachers are expected, besides the presiding elder, Preaching Saturday at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m., also on Sunday, and preaching each night during the week at 7:30 p. m.

Public Sales.

Monday, November 26th.—Personal Property of the late Dr. Thos. H. Buck, by Eugene Baker, Adminr.

Chas. W. Brown is getting in some handsome holiday goods.

Henry Dumm is receiving a stock of attractive Christmas goods.

Mrs. Harriet B. Simmons has purchased of Mr. J. D. Aisquith the well-known Aisquith property, corner of Washington and East streets, for $2,400.

The foundation for the new cottage of Mr. Cruger W. Smith has been completed, and that for the new dwelling of Mr. Robt. H. Phillips is nearly up.

The Abram Stump property, on South George street, was sold on Tuesday last, by Geo. W. Graham, Trustee, to A. Welles Stump, of New York, for $1,260.

Mr. G. N. Moore has purchased of the heirs of the late Hon. W. H. Travers a tract of about 43 acres of land adjoining the lands of Geo. W. Marlow, James M. Roper's heirs and others, for $1,295.

William P. Merchant, one of the oldest inhabitants of Berkeley county, died November 12, at the age of 90 years. He was an uncle of W. S. Merchant, of this town.

Zion M. E. Church (Colored) was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday evening, the contracting parties being Mr. John Galloway and Miss Mary Gibson. The altar was decorated with flowers, and the marriage ceremony was conducted by Rev. Mr. Gibson, pastor of the church. A large congregation was present, including a number of white friends of the happy couple.

Brown Bros. have opened out their holiday goods, and the attractiveness of their display is especially striking. Many new novelties are seen, and prices, as a rule, are most reasonable. The stock is undoubtedly one of the best ever brought to Charles Town, and if old Santa Claus cannot find here all he wants with which to please the anxious-hearted little ones, his taste must indeed be excessively fastidious.

New York, Oct. 13, 1900.

Dear Mr. Harum:—With this day's mail I send you a music book that my mother intended to send your daughters. As a Xmas present some books. He must have forgotten it, as I found it in one of his trunks after his death. With kindest regards, I am,

Your friend,

MAX BROWNOLD.

The warm friendship of our old deceased friend for us and ours was enduring as long as life lasted, and we vote this additional evidence of his kindly disposition with a feeling of sadness not unminged with pleasure.

To Prof. Max Brownold, so ready to carry out the evident wishes of his honored father, we return many thanks.

The first number of the Stephenson Seminary Course of Entertainments will be held in Washington Hall on Saturday night, Dec. 1. This will be a concert by the Metropolitan Star Quintette, consisting of three singers, a reader and a harpist. The three singers are from Detroit, and do both solo and ensemble work, giving popular and classical selections. The other two are from Philadelphia. All our community will appreciate good reading, and nothing need be said of that. The harp, however, will be the most novel feature of the evening to our audience, as it is a difficult instrument rarely mastered, and thus rarely heard. We chose this particular company because of its being one of the few in the Bureau which included a harpist, and we feel sure that our patrons will be pleased with it. The season tickets for reserved seats will be on sale at Light's Drug Store, after Nov. 29, price $1.50. Reserved seats for one entertainment 75 cts. Other seats for one night, 50c. at the door.

Boys get into all kinds of mischief, but riding a grindstone is the latest prank on row 6.

There need be no fear of disaster, however, when pants are bought of MAX TIE-JOHN, Hagley's Corner.
